TIME FOR THE DIVE TRIP!!!! Poor Kara, all alone in the store while Ray, Joey, Dennis, Dave, and Mike dive. So so very sad.

By Kara Aniya

AQUAMARINES: The dive club is up and running again, so update your membership! We had a great BBQ last month (yummm, elk burgers) and met some new dive buddies (Donni and I dove Los Coronados that weekend). Topics on our agenda this month will include a BBQ, club elections, deciding on our upcoming club dives, and a scuba gear raffle. Let us know if you're coming so we can buy enough cool raffle prizes. The meeting is July 21 at 1830 (third Wednesday of every month) at The Scuba Center.

SALES: We are also doing some summer cleaning (aka clearing out our rental locker so we can have lots of room for new products) so if you're in need of a 2 piece wetsuit, stop by and see us and we'll make you a deal (and we'll make you an even better deal if you're an Aquamarine). We also have lots of newish used gear that we'd like to sell you. Stop by and see our stuff (we have a used Pearl i3 for sale... this is good stuff!). Also, the Space II (Ocean Reef full face mask) is on sale this month, come in and check it out!

TRAVEL: In vacation news, the 4th of July dive trip is this month, everyone is going but me and I'm very jealous. If you don't want to be in this predicament when the next trip rolls around, sign up for the October dive trip now (Seats are going fast... we've sold 8 spots in the last week)! We'll be lobster hunting and lobster eating for 3 straight days. Additionally, we are currently taking suggestions for a super huge and super fantastic international weeklong dive trip, so if you have somewhere that you want to dive (ahem, Fiji, cough cough) with all of the great people at The Scuba Center, send us an email and let us know! A Belize liveaboard has already been proposed....

CLASSES: The PADI Specialty of the Month is the Deep Diver Class. Don't think that just because the specialty that you want isn't on the schedule, we won't hold the class. Come in and talk to us and we'll set up a class to teach you everything that you want to learn. We are going to host an Equipment Repair Specialty this month, so if your dive gear ever goes on the fritz at the dive site (you've all been there and know what I'm talking about), you'll know what to do! Space is limited (there are only so many people that we can fit behind the work bench) so sign up now. Also, we've got Refresher Classes for those of you that have gone astray, but are ready to come back to the good life.

RANDOM TIDBITS: We're closed on the 4th of July in observance of Independence Day, so if you plan on diving that day stop by and see us on the 3rd instead. If you're signing up for the Dive-a-thon, list Aquamarines as your dive club, we get club points and prizes, woohoo! We have a new instructor, Terry, that we'd like to welcome, as well as a returning instructor, Missy, both of whom are fantastic, so jump into one of their classes. Finally, I am now a full time dive bum, so I'm at the shop almost every day, stop in and say hi!
