JUST LIKE A MULLET, WE'RE BUSINESS IN THE FRONT AND PARTY IN THE BACK, SO LET'S GET DOWN TO IT

By Kara Aniya

Fathers' Day is coming up! Instead of a lame tie (a tie? Do they even sell those anymore?), buy your dad the gift of scuba! We're selling Discover Scuba gift certificates, which will enable dear old dad to put on some scuba gear, jump in, and scuba around the pool (all under the supervision of a highly trained and highly awesome professional, of course).

Also, we're having an AQUAMARINES meeting this month. I know what you're thinking... I've been waiting ALL MONTH for this! Rightly so, this month we'll be featuring some of The Scuba Center's new fins, which means that you'll get a chance to put on your bathing suit and mask (hey now, no Speedo's please, diving is much more enjoyable for me when I haven't scratched my eyes out), jump into the pool, and try them out. RSVP to me or Joey because we can't wait to hear how excited you are about coming—and because we're having a BBQ and need to know how many dogs to get. Wear your Aquamarines T-shirt for extra high-fives.

In store news, we've been working with Diveheart in order to support the Wounded Warriors of Camp Pendleton. You knew this already, because we send you an email telling you so! But in more recent news, we've put 3 instructors and 8 dive buddies through dive buddy training, which involved sympathy training (having masks blacked out and hands/feet tied up) and technical training (such as leading others underwater, helping them with their gear and helping the WW's into and out of the water). This means that once we get set with the Wounded Warriors we'll be able to send them through dive training. The world can always use more divers. If you'd like to help with this endeavor you can do it in a couple of different ways. You can use your diving skills for a good cause and take the course, allowing you to be a dive buddy as well—this is for all levels of diving, from open water up! You can also donate money in order to pay for other people to learn to be Dive Buddies and for the Wounded Warriors to dive.

And finally we have some dive trip news! Our 4th of July trip to the Channel Islands is coming up and we only have a few spots left. If you sign up you'll spend 3 days on the Conception (a Truth Aquatics live-aboard), diving and eating and diving and napping and diving and sea kayaking and diving and sleeping (aka having the best time of your life). This is something that you don't want to miss... but if you HAVE to, don't worry, we have another trip coming up in October at the beginning of lobster season... yummmmm... more on that later!
