Cozumel

I'll tell you what comes to mind when I hear the name—Cozumel...Corona. OK, I understand that some of you may not be following me or at least not in the same way that I am thinking, so I'll try to explain myself. Its not so much the beer that I'm thinking about, but its commercials. The add takes us to a wonderful place. We sit in beach chair under the shade of a sloping palm tree. Gazing out to sea we hear only the gentle lapping of waves along a long white sandy shore on our very own tropical beach who-knows-where. Beautiful... Sure. Relaxing... Yes. Something missing... Absolutely! Where is our dive gear? Look at all that gorgeous water and we're not diving in it. Wait, is that a dive boat on the horizon? Quick start a fire... get its attention!

Where was I? Oh yes, Cozumel! What a wonderful place to dive. Well my friends, it's for that very reason that The Scuba Center have decided to sponsor a trip to this very same tropical paradise! "Where will we be staying?" you might ask? Well none other than Cozumel's own Scuba Club Cozumel, rated one of the top ten dive destinations WORLD WIDE!

The buildings represent the area's historical Spanish Colonial architecture. The Scuba Club is located on the waterfront. In addition to the daily two tank boat dive you'll get unlimited shore dives at no additional cost. This Place is amazing! Its designed and built for divers; so a lot of the little snags you might experience at a non-diving resort are smoothed over. I mean seriously, what other resorts have an area specifically designed for you to rinse your gear?

The resort is tucked away to keep it quiet and secluded but the town is within walking distance and is a good place to experience a little bit of the local nightlife. Meals are also served on the boat diving schedule. This means no need to make reservations or having to wait after you get back... Its good not to have to wait; the food is a mix of the rich flavors found all around the Yucatan peninsula.

I can know what you're thinking... that sounds great, sounds like a memorable vacation but my (insert person here) isn't certified. What are they going to do. Well the short answer is whatever they want. How about relaxing in a hammock on your own stretch of beach. How about swimming with dolphins or making a short trip to see ancient Mayan ruins?

This is one of those trips you just can't miss and I hope you can find the time to join us! Give us a call if you want to dive these waters and play with dolphins. What have you got to loose???
