The Scuba Center and Oceanside Scuba and Swim Present...

September 2011

Dear PJ,

Whew!! Last month of summer and we've been working like crazy, I love it!

As you've seen, we've hired some new staff members, as well as new members of our dive team.

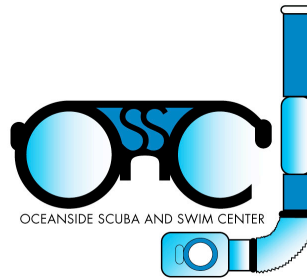

We've been doing certifications like crazy (see list on the right), and we've been adding new programs to our list (our swim classes at OSSC have been doing great!).

As the summer winds down, we have a few surprises left for you, namely our new program and a big event that we have in store, but you'll have to wait until next month to hear about those.

Sincerely,

Kara Aniya

PADI Divemaster Course

Tuition Assistance Program, now at OSSC

As most of you know, for the last year we've been running an extremely successful program at TSC. It takes a student from a PADI Open Water Diver all the way to a PADI Divemaster. We have had the opportunity to work with Mira Costa College, where they have gotten approval to have this program funded by Tuition Assistance (for active duty military members). We are now very happy to pass along the news that our newest shop, Oceanside Scuba and Swim Center, will also be hosting the Divemaster/Tuition Assistance Program. If you're interested in taking the course, please feel free to contact either store for more details.

AquaMarines Dive Club Log

Hello everyone!

This month has been an eventful month! With lots of new members to our group, it was time to pass the torch and a new leadership team was voted into place. I'd like to welcome Fred McConnell as our new President and Jeanie GreenMaki as our new VP. Though Kara was very reluctant to give up her position, I am now our new secretary.

This month's Club Dive was a two tank dive out to the Ruby E and Yukon. A special thanks goes out to Ray and Sean for providing the use of their boats. It was smooth sailing out to the ships. At depth the visibility was lovely while the cold water reminded divers why dry suits were invented. The day concluded with another yummy BBQ and lively conversation. All in all a great day!

Happy diving everyone!!
